VOL. 14, NUMBER 165 MONESSEN, PA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

The darkest hour in any man's career is that wherein he fancies there is an easier way of gaining a dollar than by squarely earning it.

Put Forth Your Best Efforts Now And Win Out

With the last day of extra votes at hand and the end of the contest so close, it is both unnecessary and useless to impress upon the contestants the need of hustling. Those who have not come to that realization of their own accord by this time, might as well give up. Those who have not made arrangements to get in every possible subscription on the special offer this evening are not doing their best and those who do not do their best cannot expect to win. In competition of this kind where there are so many and such good workers, it will take any one's very best effort to win and passing up any opportunities will greatly lessen the chances.

At ten o'clock this evening the last special offer of the contest will end As was announced yesterday this will be positively the last chance for anyone to get in any extra votes on these subscriptions.

After this evening the vote scale will drop back to its original amount and will remain so for the rest of the contest. Of course there will be subscriptions which each contestant will find impossible to get in on this offer, but that cannot always be helped and there are two more weeks in which they can get these in. But every subscription that you possibly can get now should be brought in on this offer and any that are passed up represent so many lost and lessen your chance of being winner just so much.

Nick Hughes was picked up by the police last evening as a suspicious character and at the hearing this morning he was charged with going through the pockets of several coats hanging in the office of the Sheetz hotel He had a rather poor defense and with his past record against him, the Burgess placed a fine of $10 and costs or 30 days to jail against him He was unable to pay and will probably spend his Christmas at Greensburg. Two other men arrested with him were discharged.

Victor Ray and Amos Wilson had a heated argument last evening which ended when Wilson was thrown down a flight of steps. Both men paid $5 00 fines at the hearing this morning

The baskets have been made up and will be delivered to the out of town people this afternoon, while tickets have been issued to those in this city who are to be benefitted. In addition to the chicken each basket contains potatoes, cabbage, tomatoes, beans, syrup, coffee, rice, ginger snaps, corn, soup, milk, milk and bread.

Captain Ives of the Salvation army is making the distribution after working out a system with the local Board of Charities and the nurse of the local tuberculosis dispensary. Hospital Directors Will Be Elected For Next Year

Memberships are being renewed in the Monessen-Charleroi hospital association and plans are being laid for the annual meeting for the election of a board of directors to be held the first Tuesday night of January, which happens to be January 4. In Charleroi there are from 30 to 40 members of the association, and in Monessen there are a similar number. Not only are these being urged to continue their membership, but an effort is being made to add others. The committee which has the matter in charge consists of Burges S. L. Woodward, Kerfoot W. Daly and W. R. Gaut.

Probably some changes will be effected in the directorate at the association meeting and the ones elected will be those qualified to serve and willing to undertake the obligation. Nine are to be elected. In the present board there are seven who were elected to serve two years, and they will hold over, with a single exception. This is J. C. Roberts who has just resigned his place as secretary and board member because of his contemplated removal from Charleroi.

The present board consists of W. R. Gaut. K. W. Daly, John W. Cornell, R. C. Roberts, H. A. Heupel, J. C. Roberts, L. J. Mitchell and Burgess S. L. Woodward of Charleroi; J. J. Cushing, C. L. Schuck, Eli H. Wolfe, Mrs. J. H. Arnold, Mrs. John O'Brien, A. N. Shuster, Monessen. Two year men of this number are Messrs. Gaut, Heupel, Cushing, Wolfe, J. C. Roberts, and Mitchell and Mrs. John O'Brien.

Damage Suit

A suit to recover $900 from the Charleroi Progressive Co-Operative Association was filed in the Court of Common Pleas Tuesday. Nicholas Lariccia of Monessen, entered the suit on behalf of Pasquale, his four-year old son. M. J. Keller and Bell & Bell are attorneys for the plaintiff.

It is alleged in the statement filed that May 15, 1915, the son was run down by a horse and wagon owned by the defendant and received a fractured leg. The accident occurred on Third street, Monessen, at the intersection of Schoonmaker avenue. It is charged that the driver of the vehicle whipped his horse to urge it on, which was the cause of the accident. The father claims $150 for the expense he was put to, and the sum of $750 is asked for his son.

As To Defeated Candidates

So far as we can see there isn't a single reason why a defeated candidate should have preference when it comes to selecting a suitable person to fill a political job. Because a man seeks an office and gets defeated is not a logical reason for him receiving any preference when it comes to opportunities. There are hundreds of men who work for aspiring candidates and for the party with which they are affiliated who are far more capable of filling a position than some fellows who aspire for office. Merit is what should count in making appointments and there are many men who aspire to office who are not fit to hold a public trust.

Just now there is a scramble for warden of the county jail and most of the applicants who would displace the present incumbent are defeated candidates They offer no inducements for their appointments that would commend them other than the fact that they have run for office and have been defeated. The sympathy racket pure and simple. They may all be good men. We hope they are but there should be more reason for the appointment of any one than the mere fact that he was defeated for the nomination for some certain office.

When a man aspires to public office he does it with the possibilities of defeat staring him in the face and with greater odds for defeat than election, but he enters the political arena with a desire in his heart to take down a nice fat salary and to better his financial conditions. The party owes him nothing for the chance he takes and he should not receive consideration above other men of equal ability for any appointments that are to be made. So when the selection of a warden is to be made it is to be hoped that those having claims upon the office will be considered as their claims deserve and if they have only a "certificate of defeat" to present to the board that their cause will be dealt with as it deserves to be.

No Issue Tomorrow

There will be no issue of this paper until Monday. We pause for a day to celebrate in commemoration of that season most sacred to the human heart. This city and its people have much reason to rejoice as the Christmas morn is ushered in and while there are homes where the cold hand of poverty has been stretched forth, yet even these have been visited by a gleam of hope that Leen stretched forth, yet even those have been visited by a gleam of hope that through the dark veil there is a semblance of sunshine. Our Salvation army has been busy and other charitable institutions, and through their tender agency and kind consideration many a family will have a good Christmas meal and comfortable clothing that would oherwise have gone cold and hungry,so in this way even these unfortunates will be made happy for the time and a sweet smile will spread across the face of many a countenance to displace a chill of gloom.

But the fortune that has come to this community out of the industrial chaos of a year ago has brought to the community the richest blessings There can be no complaint in the general summary. Where health and thrift abound there is plenty. Those who are ambitious are celebrating an unprecedented era of prosperity which twelve months ago was not prognosticated even by the wisest heads , and in this general condition of affairs, Monessen is head and shoulders above many towns. The enormous payroll that was passed out to workmen as a pre-holiday reward for their labors was the largest in the history of our town and we reiterate public sentiment when we say it has been the greatest in our history. This paper wishes all of is readers and all of those within its sphere a very Merry Christmas.

The Record in Monessen is a Unique One

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ills and is looking for an effective kidney remedy, better depend on the remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills have given great satisfaction in such cases. Monessen citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:

H. R. Wilbur, 131 McKee avenue, Monessen, says: "I contracted a heavy cold which affected my kidneys. My back was sore and lame all the time and I had to have help to turn in bed. My whole body was like a board. I often had to have someone help dress me. Shooting pains darted through my body and I couldn't do my work. My body became bloated. The secretions were profuse in passage and contained sediment. I had dizzy spells and hot flashes, and I was miserable in every way. I doctored for years but didn't improve. The first box of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and two boxes practically cured me. Now and then I take Doan's Kidney Pills as a kidney tonic and give them credit for keeping me well."

Price 50c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wilbur had. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

NECKWEAR and muff sets were never more fashionable than they are just now, and they are among the easiest to make of home-made gifts. They confer both style and comfort upon their wearers to the joy of those who receive them.

Neckpieces are simply straight lengths of velvet, plush or fur cloth, cut a quarter of a yard wide and a yard or more in length They are lined with satin and gathered in at the ends, where a tasseled ornament makes the finish. They fasten about the neck with a hook and eye or slide. Crocheted, passamenterie or bead buckles and ornaments are used on them

Muffs are barrel shaped and made over beds of down or wool batting These beds are bought ready made and are very cheap Velvet coverings are usually gathered over them with ruffles at each end as shown in the picture The muff and ruffles are lined with satin Silk cords or strands of large black beads are fashionable this season for decorating these sets

And how much merrier would the Christmas be with more and better gifts to hand father or mother, sister or sweetheart, wife or daughter or to the kiddies that want them most.

Join Our Holiday Savings Fund
Which Starts December 27th.

And be ready with a nice snug bank account when Christmas comes again. The plan is simple, easy, and satisfactory in every detail.

In Class 1, you pay 1 cent the first week, 2 cents the second week 3 cents the third week and so on for 50 weeks until the last week you pay 50 cents.

In Class 2, you pay 2 cents the first week, 4 cents the second week, 6 cents the third week and so on for 50 weeks.

In Class 5, you pay 5 cents the first week, 10 cents the second week, 15c the third week and so on for 50 weeks.
